How would you like to create a QR Code Treasure Hunt with an automatic program that creates not only the QR codes, but, instructions, quiz answer codes, and more?

Imagine the second day of class quizzing the students on the things they have already learned about your program OR having a friendly competition to see who can answer all the quiz questions on your last lesson first. The link below will take you directly to the generator. The next few pages show the results of what I just did in a few minutes. Good luck, matey!
