Doodle eliminates the chaos that comes from scheduling and saves you a lot of time and energy when you're trying to find a time to bring a group of people together. I just used it to schedule our Spring Advisory Committee meeting. It took about a minute for me to create and send it. Free and easy sign up and you get an email to let you know when someone has sent in their response.

The screenshot shows a Doodle poll interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with 'Doodle', 'Plans', 'Help', 'English', and a user profile for 'Sonya Rosenglick'. A 'Create a Doodle' button is also present. Below this is a dark bar with a 'Choose final option' button, an 'Invite' button, and a 'More' dropdown. The main heading is 'Spring Advisory Committee Meeting' by Sonya Rosenglick (You) • 5 days ago • Print. The location is '2001 Kurt St, Eustis, FL 32726, USA'. There are instructions to 'Please check all that apply' and a note that 'All times displayed in America/New York'. A 'Table' tab is selected, showing a grid of responses for four dates: Mar 29 (THU) 5:30 PM-6:30 PM, Mar 29 (THU) 6:00 PM-7:00 PM, Apr 2 (MON) 5:30 PM-6:30 PM, and Apr 2 (MON) 6:00 PM-7:00 PM. The grid shows 6 participants, with 5, 6, 4, and 4 votes respectively. The participants listed are Samantha Hayes, Jennifer Sampson-Y..., Leslie Gibbons, Kevin Keen, Amy Hasselbring, and Sonya Rosen... (the creator). A 'Comments' section at the bottom shows 'NO COMMENTS' and an 'Add a comment' field. An 'Unsubscribe from updates' button is also visible.
