

PATIENT CARE TECHNICIAN (PCT)

The Patient Care Technician program is a 600-hour Pell Grant eligible program that can be completed in approximately 20 weeks.

Our admissions team is ready to reserve YOUR seat TODAY!
See a career advisor for more information.

What you will learn: (full description is available at www.laketech.org)

- EKG and Phlebotomy aide related skills
- Nursing assistant skills related to the hospital, home and skilled nursing settings
- How to assist with restorative and rehabilitative activities

Certifications:

- Successful completion of the program allows you to earn the following certifications:
 - Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA)
 - Phlebotomy Certification* (CPT)
 - Home Health Aide (HHA) Completion Certificate

Scholarships/Sponsorships: (full description is available at www.laketech.org)

- Scholarships for Lake County High school completers of CNA program
- Scholarships available to those that qualify
- Pell and VA eligible

Completed your CNA? You may qualify for prior credit and scholarships. Contact admissions.

*Phlebotomy Technician exam (CPT) through The National Healthcareer Association (NHA) cost is not included in student fees.

CLASS BEGINS: JANUARY 21, 2020

LAKE TECHNICAL COLLEGE
MAIN CAMPUS

2001 Kurt Street
Eustis , Florida 32726
352-589-2250

APPLY NOW